

Multi-Family Building Participation Decision Tree

Parties interested in applying for energy efficiency services through NYSERDA that live in multi-unit properties should use this decision tree as a tool to determine which program they may be eligible for.

